

MASEA Annual Conference 2009 Call for Programs

Times of Your Life

Do you have a Student Employment practice or procedure that has withstood the test of time? Do you have an up to the minute practice? Do you have a really unique timekeeping system? Annual Conference is a great way to share your well-timed ideas with others, as well as learn some timely new practices. Presenting at a regional conference is an excellent way to gain personal professional development.

Potential program topics:

- Technology and student employment
- JLD programs
- Job fairs
- Student employee training/ professional development
- Community service work-study programs
- Student payroll practices and software
- Supervisor training
- Cultural Diversity
- Streamlining/improving procedures
- Maximizing limited budgets
- Winning employer recruitment ideas
- National Student Employment Week Recognition practices
- And other topics of interest to Student Employment Professionals!!

The MASEA conference will be in Madison, WI on Wednesday, June 17th through Friday, June 19th. Approximate presentation times are available as listed below:

Wednesday, June 17th

___ 9:45 - 10:45
